In Remembrance

Leaving his death for an example of noble courage, and a memorial of virtue, not only unto young men, but unto all his nation.

DONALD LABBE

MR. T. O. MORGAN

CLASS POEM

Commencement day is drawing nigh,
And we shall soon leave Tallmadge High.

The many joys and many woes,
Our teachers, classmates, friends and beaux.

Classes, books, activities and band,
Along with football games so grand.

The track events and basketball
Those happy times we will recall.

Each memory will have its part,
Within the bosom of every heart.

Now we must leave it all behind,
For we've another path to find.

And may we never stop to rest,
Until we find the path that's best.

But when the way seems long and drear,
We know we need not tread with fear.

For in the future day by day,
Our God above will guide the way.

A smile is worth a fortune!

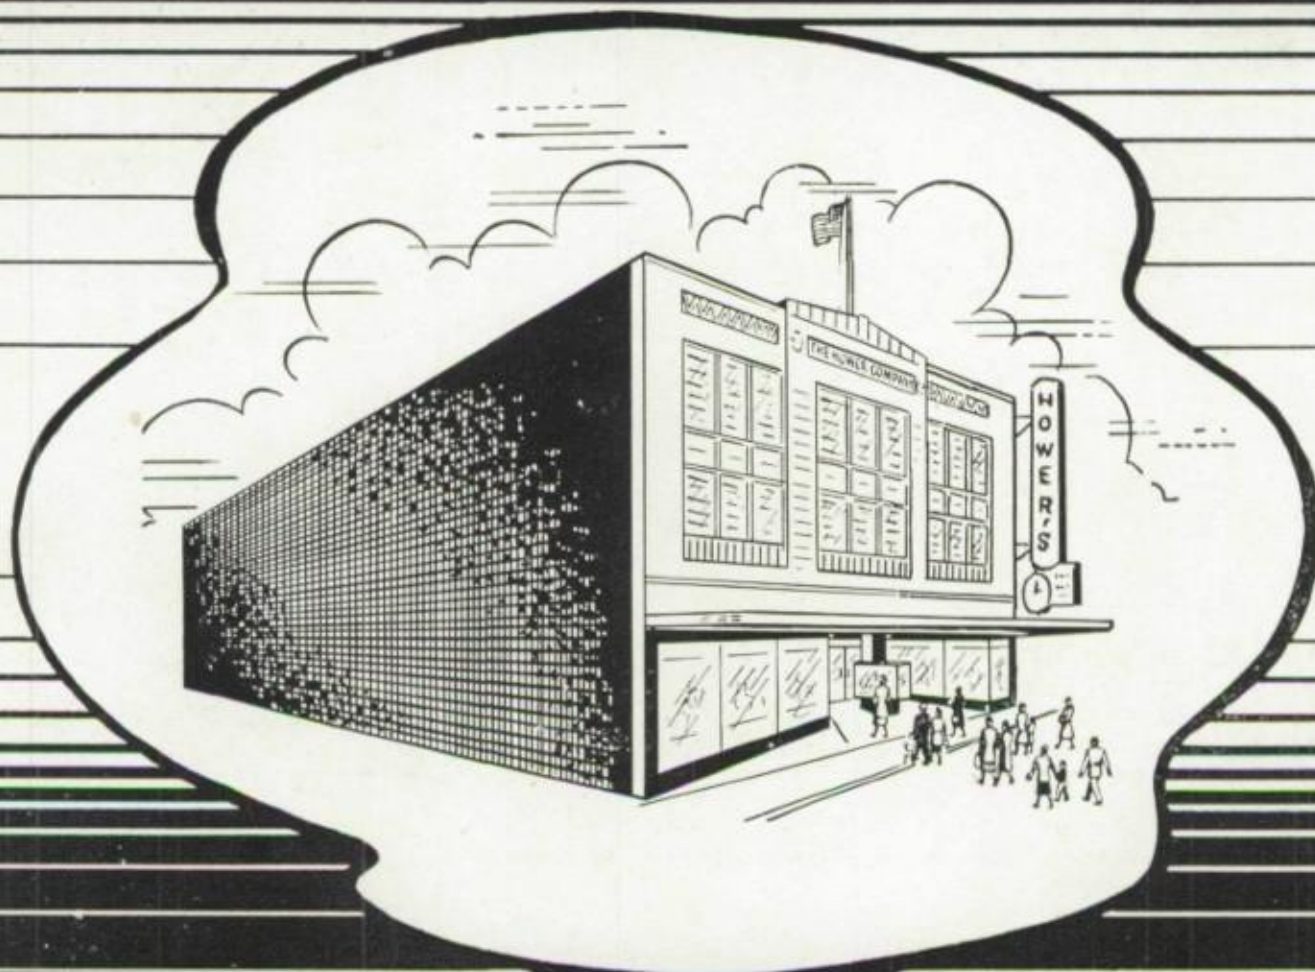

One of the sincerest efforts to make the 1952 "Circle Light" a success was made by Pat Marik, Janice Houck, Nancy Atwood, and Mary Lee Ferguson. They sold more advertisements than anyone else in the contest sponsored by the yearbook, and the staff thanks them for their cooperation.

Aknowledgments

We, the Circle Light Staff of 1952, wish to thank the Tallmadge student body and all our many friends for their helpful suggestions. Especially, do we extend our thanks to Mr. Howard Carpenter of Carpenter's Studio for his unending help. Miss Doris Carpenter, Mr. Arther of the Atlantic Press for his patience and aid, and our advisers.

Playing the Game

"BE A SPORT."

"THE SPORTING THING TO DO."

"FAIR PLAY."

The above expressions are peculiar to the English language and can not be translated into any other language to give the same meaning. These expressions are not admonitions necessary during a game and directed to the players, they are rules for daily life, to use the ethics of the field of play in everyday business relations.

The baseball diamond and gridiron thus becomes a superior training place for ethics and morals. This unique attitude which we as Americans take towards all problems of life places us in buoyant, never quit, philosophical frame of mind, which has eluded all other nations.

These are the reasons that Borden Auto believes in supporting all athletic programs. Americans are born and reared in the traditions of sport and the desire for victory. To play the games fairly, to be won with modesty and to be lost without an alibi. We support sports not for financial gain or glory, but because of the love of the game and the delight derived from thrilling competition.
